DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-4 and 6, drawn to fingerprint scanner, classified in class 382, subclass 124.
  - II. Claim 5, drawn to semiconductor device surface coating, classified in class 257, subclass 629.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as a fingerprint sensor. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. During a telephone conversation with Gregory Mayback, #40,719 on 12/7/2004 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-4 and 6. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claim 5 withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 1-4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bryant (US 6091132).

With respect to claim 1, Bryant discloses a fingerprint sensor with surface coating to protect against scratches, (see figure 2, and the col. 4, lines 56-65). However, he fails to disclose the layer being from a group of fats, oils, surfactants, and waxes, as claimed. But, as define the surfactants are the surface-active substance, it is obvious to one ordinary skilled in the art at the time of invention to use the silicon carbide as the surfactants. As, suggested in the reference (see col. 5, lines 20-21) the silicon carbide is scratch resistance.

With respect to claims 2-4, the reference is silent about the material use for the layer. But, is well known in the art to use silicone oil or the perfluoropolyether to improve the smoothness of the surface and to improve against the scratch. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one ordinary skilled in the art at the time of invention to consider the well known feature of using silicone oil or the perfluoropolyether to improve the smoothness of the surface and to improve against the scratch.

With respect to claim 6, Bryant further discloses the passivation layer with silicon nitrite as the upper layer (see figure 2, layers 26 and 28) as claimed.
